FLEMING WOMAN
SUICIDES, HANGING
SELF TO BED POST

Mrs. Kate Sousley, of Near Ellsaville, Fleming County, had thought and talked much of recent suicide of Chas. Ross.

Tuesday morning when Howard Spencer and family living on the Hilltop pike about one mile from Ellsaville, Fleming county, went to the bed room of Mrs. Kate Sousley, who lived with them, to learn why she did not get up they found her cold in death, hanging to a bed post with two towels about her neck at a rope.

The towels were tied at the top of the high bed post and the woman evidently bad to bend her knees to strangle herself.

Deceased was the widow of Dan Sousley who died a few years ago and was about 70 years of age. No cause is assigned for her action.

She had talked seriously about the suicide of C. L. Ross which occurred some days ago and it seemed to prey on her mind. The evening before she had retired apparently in her normal condition and gave no evidence of anything rash.

Coroner C. C. Maxey held an inquest and a jury found Mrs. Sousley had come to death by her own hand.

Deceased survived by three sisters, Mrs. Sellars, Mrs. Rose Howe, Mrs. Frank Correll, and four brothers, John, Howard, Charles and Ben Spencer. Burial will take place at Ellsaville Thursday, services by Rev. F. J. Dickey.

ACCIDENT RETURNING FROM COLORED DANCE.

The Fleming Gazette says:
Tuesday morning when Clud Fyx, John H. Rice, Will Cochran and one or two others, all colored, returned from Maysville where they attended a dance and imbibed in moonshine they drove out the Mt. Sterling pike for a joy ride in Fyx's machine. Returning, Fyx took the wheel and in speeding down the hill just beyond C. W. Crain's home the auto went into the ditch and turned over.

Fox and Rice were taken home, but the full extent of their injuries is not known, both being intoxicated. Fyx appears to be hurt internally and about the back, probably seriously.

HISPLAY OF WORK AT MAYSVILLE SCHOOL.

On Friday afternoon beginning at 1 o'clock there will be an exhibit of the work done by the different grades in Maysville school. The children of the first four grades will furnish a varied program of their work beginning at 2:30. The teachers will be in their rooms at 6:30 and until the beginning of the music recital at 8 p.m. and will be glad to see patrons. We should like for each person interested in the school to see this exhibit and to be present at each of the programs.

THE "MOTHER OF MEDICINE."

Iris, the Queen and afterwards the Goddess, was called the "Mother of Medicine." In ancient Egypt, centuries before Christ, women were skilled in medicine. They knew the great value of medicinal plants.

Hippocrates, the "Father of Medicine," many centuries later, knew less of the merit of vegetable drugs than did the women of ancient times.

Lydia E. Plukham, nearly fifty years ago, gave to women her Vegetable Compound, now known everywhere as Lydia E. Plukham's Vegetable Compound. This is a woman's medicine for woman's ailments, prepared from medicinal plants.

MR. THOMAS MOLLOY DIED ON TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Prominent Minerva Farmer Died Tuesday of Pneumonia—Had Recently Undergone Serious Operation.

Mr. Thomas Molloy, prominent Minerva farmer, died at his home near that place Tuesday afternoon at about 6 o'clock after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Molloy had recently undergone a successful operation at a Cincinnati hospital for the removal of a deadly cancer.

Mr. Molloy was one of the most prominent farmers in the Minerva neighborhood. He took an interest in all county affairs and was a most active director of the Germantown fair. He survived by four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Peter Cooks and Miss Margaret Molloy, of the county, Miss May Molloy, Mrs. Moore and Dr. Molloy, of Lexington.

The funeral will be held from St. James Catholic church at Minerva at 10 o'clock Thursday morning and burial will be made in the Washington Catholic cemetery.

JUDGE COCHRAN SENTENCED 99 PERSONS TUESDAY

More Than Four Hours Required for Federal Judge to Sentence Persons Convicted at Covington Court.

It required more than four hours Tuesday afternoon for the pausing of sentences in Federal Court, Covington, on ninety-nine persons convicted at this term of court. Judge A. M. J. Cochran imposed unusually heavy sentences, which ranged from fines to terms in the penitentiary.

Many jail sentences were inflicted in cases where the charges were violations of the prohibition laws. Judge Cochran said he desired to be reasonable, but that the manufacture and selling of liquor required punishment to eliminate the evil. He said the soft-drink stand is being used as a cover for the sale of whisky.

The conspiracy charge against five Newport men, James O'Brien, Carl Bruehaber, John Donaback, Steve Fawcett and Andrew Bogeneschulte, who were arrested and convicted for activities in connection with the steel strike, drew a large crowd to the courtroom. Judge Cochran read a number of affidavits describing conditions in Newport at the time the defendants were charged with obstructing a truck which was being driven by Albert Yockey from the Andrews Steel Plant to Cincinnati.

Attorney Arthur Hall, representing the men, asked for leniency. Judge Cochran sentenced each of the five men, except John Donaback, to a term of eight months in the Winchester (Ky.) jail, and Donaback to thirty day in the Covington jail.

PLAINTIFFS GET JUDGMENT.

The case of Reusse vs. Parry, et al., was concluded in the Mason Circuit Court late Tuesday after consuming two days. A jury gave judgment for the full amount asked by the plaintiffs. The plaintiffs charged that they sold their crop of tobacco at their farm in Indiana to the local buyers, who failed to accept it and they were compelled to sell it on another market at a loss of $3,000.28. They were awarded judgment in this amount. The case will likely be appealed.

ALL SET FOR THE OPENING GAME OF BLUEGRASS LEAGUE

Thursday To Be Big Day In Maysville for Baseball Lovers—Big Parade To Precede Formal Opening of Season Here.

"Play Ball!" The season is at hand, the sun shines bright. The trees are in bloom, the flowers are throwing their fragrance in the air, to remind us spring is here.

The opening game of the Blue Grass League in Maysville will be Thursday, April 20, for your amusement. So come at the opening and enjoy the fun. All the business houses will close at 1:30. The city schools have declared a holiday at noon. Maysville welcomes the opening ball game. See that famous Centro football man umpire the first game. Red Robert will be here to see that the kicks will not make the ball go out.

See the President of the Blue Grass League, in all his glory, Thomas M. Russell, toss the first snow-white ball in the bunting run to the Banker E. L. Willett to catch the silver coins out of it before the fun begins.

Hear the "Kentucky Cardinals" band play their concert at the ball park from 2 to 2:30, to cheer the boys up to hard work. See Eineman or Shaw pitching for the Maysville team, while Vanlandingham pitches for the Winchester team.

The following line-up is announced by Manager Bosken: Welmer, if; Class, '2b; Connally, c; Slayback, 2b; Kresser, ss; Dresel, lb; Margarine, lf; Bosken, rf; Shaw or Eineman, p.

The parade will form at Central Street at 1:30, then to Market, Market to second, Second to Sutton, Sutton to Third, over Third out Bridge to the ball park. It will be lead by the police department, the Kentucky Cardinal Band, then Winchester ball team, the Horseshoe Band, then Maysville ball team and officers of the Blue Grass League.

Meet us at ball party where the fun will begin.

LIQUOR CASE HAS MANY UNUSUAL ANGLES

Fight in Pool Room Leads to Arrests
—One Case Dismissed and Another Party Is Placed Under Arrest.

On Monday afternoon the local police arrested two colored men who were engaged in a fight at the colored pool room in Front street and at the hearing of this fight evidence crept out that there had been some bootlegging done in that vicinity.

Warrants were issued for Charles Warner, colored, an employee of the pool room charging him with selling liquor to another. His case had gone but a short distance on Tuesday afternoon when evidence crept out that Warner's employer, Fine Best, had been selling liquor. Upon motion of the city, the warrant against Warner was dismissed and a new warrant was immediately issued for Best, who could not be found.

On Tuesday evening Best surrendered himself to Police Judge Curran and his case was set for trial for Thursday evening.

So much talking is being done on all sides that these series of cases promise to develop something interesting.

ROUSTING 'EM OUT

The Democratic Senators and Representatives who are crying out against the action of President Harding in cleaning house at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing are the very ones who were loudest in their demands for political plums when the government was taken over by the Wilson administration in 1913. They had no regard for Federal efficiency when they sought to put their political friends in important positions, and they have no regard for it now when they want Mr. Harding to keep men in office who have been proven inefficient after a searching investigation. The Democrats may cry "spoils" if it suits them to do so, but the fact is that the Federal service is going to be put on a higher plane of efficiency, regardless of how many Democratic toes are stepped on in the process.

TYPHOID FEVER
MORTALITY DECREASES
IN THE UNITED STATESCommerce Department Announces the Figures on Deaths From Typhoid Fever in America.

Washington, D. C., April 5. — The Department of Commerce through the Bureau of the Census, announces lower mortality rates from typhoid fever in recent years. The amount of typhoid fever in a community is recognized as one of the best indexes to its healthfulness. So also the mortality rate from this cause is a very important sanitary index.

The steadily decreasing mortality rate from typhoid fever is therefore most gratifying, a decrease in the registration rates of 1916 from 13.3 per 100,000 population in 1916 to 7 in 1920. In 1920 of the states in the registration area Massachusetts and Wisconsin share the honor of having the lowest rates (2.5) while the highest (22.4) appears for South Carolina. Of the eleven states showing rates by color, the lowest rate for the white population was 3.6 and the lowest for the colored was 4.5; both for New York state, while the highest rate for the white population was 19.1 for Kentucky and that for the colored was 30.2.

Of the 32 states shown for 1919 and 1920 in the table below only 8 show higher rates in 1920 than in 1919, namely:

State	1920	1919
Colorado	9.2	8.5
Connecticut	4.1	4.0
Kansas	8.0	7.8
Maine	9.0	5.7
Michigan	7.9	7.6
New Hampshire	6.8	3.4
New Jersey	3.3	3.2
Vermont	10.5	3.1
Washington	5.6	4.2

Reports from the state of Kentucky show 419 deaths in 1920 as against 536 in 1919 and 540 in 1918.

KEEPING THEM ON THE PAY ROLLS.

Of the seven emergency measures recommended by the Manufacturers' Committee of President Hardin's Conference on Unemployment, the first, which refers to part time work through reduced time or rotation of jobs, is almost universally in practice today, as letters to the Emergency Committee of the conference clearly show.

Charles M. Schwab, of the Bethlehem Steel Company, for instance, says: "We have endeavored to maintain the maximum possible number on the rolls. This, of course, means a rotation of forces. In spite of the serious depression through which we have been passing, the number of employees on our rolls has decreased only 27 per cent, from January to November 1, of last year, as compared with a reduction in operations of from 65 to 70 per cent."

"When it became absolutely necessary to reduce the number of employees, men for lay-off were selected with care, due consideration being

New York Letter

by Lucy Jeanne Price

New York. — Renfrew may be earthed too far. I've suspected this for a long time — ever since seeing one or two of this season's plays — and one gets a bit tired of the psychological banting which leads people to try so many experiments so that they "will know how people would act" under various conditions. Here's one new instance. A Japanese, giving his name as Taitta 'sjo, explained when he was held on charges of beating Mrs. Amelia Cartthener with an umbrella, that he was seeking "local color" for a scenario he was writing. One scene, he said, shows an attack on a pretty girl. "I wanted to find out how she'd act." Taitta declared.

The man who expects gossip of the day from his barber has a surprise waiting for him in shop in Fulton street. One of the chairs there is managed by a lay preacher, who keeps a Bible close at hand and accompanies clip-clop of his shears with a forceful sermon, plentifully sprinkled with Biblical quotations.

—NY—

Among the theatrical gossip of the day, here along Broadway, is that "Under the Bamboo Tree" is going to be revived soon, with Jimmy Hinsley in the role originally played by Bert Williams; that Eva Le Gallienne will make her appearance on Broadway next season as a full fledged star in a play based upon the life of Jeanne d'Arc; and that David Belasco has another play ready for Frances Starr, which will be tried out shortly.

—NY—

"Society blackmail" is rife again in New York, according to District Attorney Benton, who says that he has information that several magazines of the gossip kind have recently received money for keeping articles out of print. The difficulty is, as he points out, that the victims won't let him use their names in order to prosecute and so the law is helpless.

—NY—

All the wheat states of the union will be ransacked by Mrs. Marie Whittaker, of 330 Henry street, who has just left New York in a small motor car to make a thorough search for her son, Harry, who left home four years ago and has not been heard of since. She said that he left for the wheat belt and disappeared. The police have failed to locate him, but Mrs. Whittaker believes if she stops at every farm and ranch

Even the Quat's Arts balls are censored in these particular and censorious days, and the old-time freedom of costume is to be found no more. The Quat's Arts ball is one of the frolics of the year for the artists, writers, actors, models and anyone else who can find a place to hang on to anyone of the arts, an dthe annual event is always looked forward to with artistic excitement. But this year, a staid policewoman, Mrs. Hannah MacQuire, was stationed at the ball to see that artists didn't presume too far upon their temperament and peregrinations. One model, Mitzi Morton, was tearfully sent from the dancing floor by the admiring upholder of the law, but finally won her consent to appear again if she would drap herself somewhat more completely. So Mitzi came back with a batik scarf about her and Mrs. MacQuire allowed the dance to continue, ever with a watchful eye at Mitzi's shoulders, however.

You know those little rows of monkeys you have bought as coming straight from the Orient, carrying their little sermon of "See no evil; Hear no evil; Speak no evil"? Well, it would be an awful how to you to know that every last one of them reaches you through a shop near Columbus Circle right here in New York? It does. Some of them go to Chinatown, soon to London, some to every part of the shopping world. But they start on their journey from Columbus Circle. Oh, well, it's a good motto, wherever it comes from.

Jazz, the insidious and all-prevailing jazz, was directly responsible for the death of Melville M. Wilson, one of New York's oldest cellists, according to his closest friends. The seventy-year old musician was unable to adjust himself to modern conditions, so they say. He couldn't play jazz — and he wouldn't. His cello was almost sacred to him and he would not defile it.

Lexington, Ky., — Thousands of dozens of Kentucky eggs will be placed in water glass during the coming few months while eggs are cheaper for next winter when prices for this product soar, according to poultrymen at the College of Agriculture. Use of the water glass method of preserving makes it possible to have winter eggs at about one-half of what fresh ones would cost, the poultrymen say.

Eggs can be kept fresh as long as a year by the following method, according to J. R. Smyth, extension poultryman:

"Only absolutely fresh eggs should be preserved, candling being advisable if there is any doubt as to their freshness. Dirty eggs or eggs that have been washed should not be used. Washed eggs will not keep because the protective covering has been removed, while dirty eggs will become tainted in flavor. Infertile eggs should be used whenever it is possible to obtain them.

"Commercial water glass which may be bought at any drug store, is used at the rate of one quart to nine quarts of water that has been boiled and then cooled. The mixture is stirred until the ingredients are thoroughly mixed.

"A clean stone jar has been found to be the most suitable container, one-eighth-gallon jar being sufficient for 15 dozen eggs. One quart of the water glass and nine or water will preserve this quantity. The eggs are placed in the solution so that those at the top are covered by at least two inches of liquid after which the jar should be covered to prevent evaporation. The jar needs to be stored in a cool place where it will be undisturbed.

"The housekeeper who wants to save steps need not go to the jar every time she wishes an egg but may take enough out of the solution to last several days, providing she has a cool place to keep them. Eggs may be added to the solution from time to time without danger of spoiling those already in it."

Gude's Pepto-Mangan Is The Best Remedy for Nervous Tired Out Wives.

Is your wife "all tired out" and cross and irritable much of the time? Do the children "holler her to death" every day, and do the ordinary household tasks that she formerly performed with ease seem now to overtax her? In other words, do you often come home to a house of trouble instead of a house of joy and happiness?

If your answer is "yes" to these pointed questions, don't blame your wife until she had taken Gude's Pepto-Mangan with her meals for a few weeks. She is simply run-down and nervous and needs the kind of iron that she will get in Gude's Pepto-Mangan to give her more vitality and strength. For thirty years doctors have recommended Gude's Pepto-Mangan as a first-class building-up tonic. Sold by your druggist in both liquid and tablet form. —Advertisement.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY HOLDS MEET IN ORCHARD.

Flemingsburg, Ky., April 19. — A meeting of interest to the fruit growers in this section of the state, conducted under the auspices of the Kentucky state horticultural society, was held at the Bald Hill Orchard of V. C. Razor, this county, about six miles from this city. The orchard consists of more than 50 acres of apple trees, all of which were in full bloom at the time of the meeting. Ben Miles, secretary of the society, was the principal speaker. Others who spoke were Professor Olin of the horticultural department of the University of Kentucky, Dr. Howard Van Antwerp of Farmers, Ky., J. C. Ralus, of Maysville, and H. F. McKinney, agricultural agent of Fleming county.

MANY KENTUCKIANS CARRY LIFE INSURANCE.

Frankfort, Ky., April 19. — Kentuckians carried a total of $633,447.19 worth of insurance on their lives, covered by 1,400,923 policies, on December 31, 1921, according to the annual report of Insurance Commissioner James P. Ramey, made public here today. This is a net gain of $40,034,716 in insurance in force, as compared with January 1, 1921, and a gain of $6,925 in the number of policies. Premiums paid totaled $19,732,848, and death claims paid totaled $6,297,331.
